Our Vision

What we want to achieve

To deliver educational excellence

- A high quality early years foundation.
- Exceptional teaching across all phases of our schools.
- A purposeful and sequenced integrity based curriculum which inspires and engages all pupils.
- Excellent personal progress for every pupil, irrespective of starting points.

Pride

Inspiration

Inquisitiveness

To build a partnership of inclusive schools where all pupils thrive and achieve, irrespective of background, characteristics or starting points.

- Ensure pupils with SEND receive the support they require, an ambitious curriculum and achieve well at school.
- Targeted support for disadvantaged pupils and their families.
- Pupils believe in education where risk and failure is embraced and creates limitless opportunities for the future.
- The schools celebrate diversity and people of all backgrounds are treated equally.

Kindness

Inclusion

Diversity

To empower our pupils to become valuable members of the world

- Development of strong and purposeful cultural understanding in pupils.
- Create lifelong positive behaviours to succeed safely in the physical and online world.
- Offer extra curricular provision in Sport, Music and Drama and inspire pupils to take part.
- Support the mental and emotional wellbeing of our pupils by creating a psychologically safe environment for them to learn.

Respect

Respect

Compassion

To demonstrate innovation as a partnership

- Focused and resilient school systems and structures, including financial systems.
- Investment in the professional and personal support of our staff creating development opportunities for everyone.
- Strong and compassionate leadership at all levels, alongside the growth and development of school leaders.
- Quality school environments and shared resources.
- Retain the unique identities of our separate schools.
- Support the mental and emotional wellbeing of our staff by creating a psychologically safe environment for them to work.

Courage

Resilience

Perseverance

To hold a valued and proud position within the heart of the local communities

- First choice primary schools for families across the local area.
- Deep understanding of and connection to our local community.
- Quality links and transition with The Joseph Whitaker School and other secondary schools when needed.
- Links with the community beyond the school day.
